Richmond, Va. Nov 21st 1889

To the

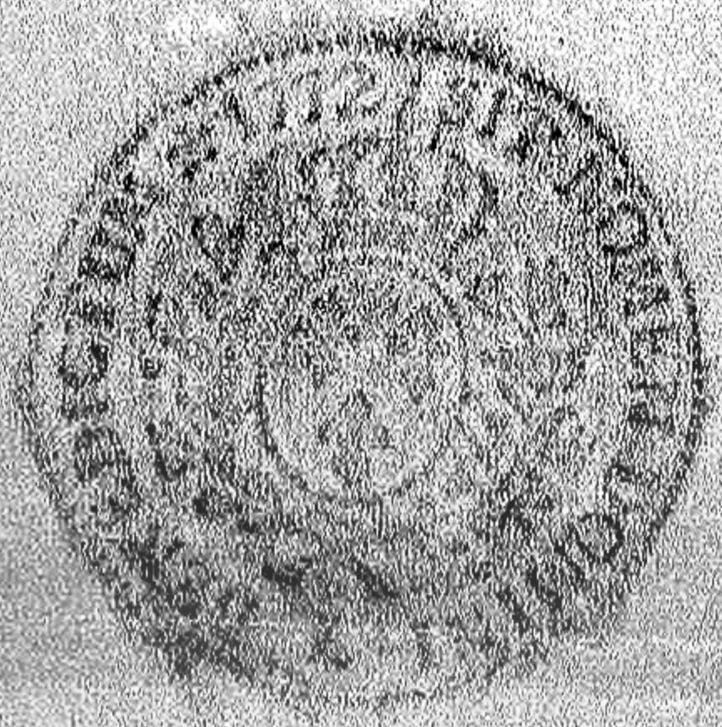
Director U. S. Mint:

Sir: Please do me the kindness to give me information in regard to the val-ue, and rarity of the coin impressions of which I enclose. I beg to apologize for asking such a favor; and trust that you will do me the honor to reply.

Yours respectfully

Preston Nash.

RG104 E-1 Box 160



RG104-E-1 Box 160

579

Richmond. Va.
Nov. 21. 1889.

Boston Mass

Impression of Coin
Sent Lokmoffer 28
Values.

RECEIVED
NOV 25 1889
U.S. MINT, PHILA.

U. S. Treasury Department.

The rubbing is of a Crown of Louis XV. of France.

Face Value, $1.05

Intrinsic Value, about 75 cts.

Market Value, $1.00 @ $1.25

JNQ

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 160

[Abstract:] Impression of coin sent to know its value.

Richmond, Va.
November 21, 1889

To the Director U.S. Mint

Sir:

Please do me the kindness to give me information in regard to the value, and variety of the coin impressions of which I enclose. I beg to apologize for asking such a favor, and trust that you will do me the honor to reply.

Yours respectfully,
Preston Nash

[See original images for coin rubbings.]

[Enclosed note:]

U.S. Treasury Department.

The rubbing is of a crown of Louis XV, of France.

Face value,	$1.08
Intrinsic value, about	75 cts.
Market value.	$1.00 to $1.25

MC.